RICHMOND POLICEMEN GO TO HOPEWELL TO-DAY

Will Be Sworn In by Judge West at Prince George Courthouse. ANOTHER HOLD-UP REPORTED

Former Police Lieutenant John Porter Takes Witness Stand in His feet Own Defense in Bribery Case-Liquor Indictments Returned.

Four officers of the Richmond Police and Hopewell, according to a statement made last night at Prince George Court house by Judge Jesse F. West, who has made requisition on Mayor Ainslie for the detail. Judge West said that the officers would appear in his court to-day and be sworn in as special police of Prince George County

The names of the policemen who will be detailed for this duty have not been made public at Police Headquarters, and considerate. and considerable secrecy appears to surround the matter, so far as the city officials are concerned. The detail will temporary, continuing only until Governor Stuart and Judge West can make further arrangements for breaking up lawlessness in and about Hope-well.

PORTER TAKES STAND
IN HIS OWN DEFENSE
It now appears that the Porter case will not be concluded until Monday or Tuesday. Porter was on the stand yesterday afternoon, when court adjourned, and will be further cross-examined by Special Prosecutor George E. Wise to-day. The defendant make a good witness for himself, it is said. He is a man of stolid countenance and of powerful physique, being more than six feet three inches tall and weighing about 250 pounds.

Porter admitted having given 0, M. Reeves, supervisor of the Du Pont ponice force, $25, but anserted that the money was to defray the expenses of Reeves to the police chiefs convention at Newport News on July 12. Reeves, the principal witness for the Commonwealth, had testified that Porter gave him $25 as a bribe to prevent interference with certain gambling operations in Hopewell, Porter denied any wrongdoing during his service on the Hopewell police force.
